

I would prefer that the FCC does not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Since the law was implemented, we reduced our telemarketing calls by approximately 20 per week to 1 or 2 (charities only). If I solicit marketing material or information, I do not mind receiving it. Getting unsolicited marketing information (especially phone calls) is a disruption to my privacy. Thank you...